Place Guarantee Stamp and Authorized Signature inside of the space provided below. Do not overlap any part of the stamp and/or signature with other text in the application.

This Letter of Instruction must be signed below in the presence of the individual guaranteeing your signature. A signature guarantee assures a signature is genuine and protects you from unauthorized requests. Financial institutions that may guarantee signatures include banks, trust companies, credit unions, broker/dealers and member firms of a national securities exchange. Contact the financial institution you intend to obtain a signature guarantee from for further information. A notary public cannot provide a signature guarantee.
